

World Happenings In Pictures

★ ★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★ ★

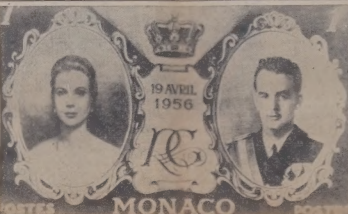

MINK BECOMES HOUSE PET—A tame white mink with a passion for hamburger and who was raised by a cat, taken to a pipe as he is held by Perry Hudson, of Vancouver. Perry turned the usually vicious mink into a house pet.

MARGARET TRUMAN, daughter of former President Harry S. Truman, holds a toy electric train at a New York press conference as she tells newsmen she had wanted one when she was eight years old, but got a piano instead. Miss Truman, who appears on radio and TV, is following her father's writing efforts with a book of her own becoming titled "Daisy".

ITALY'S PRESIDENT MEET AT WHITE HOUSE—President Eisenhower extends a welcome at the White House to President Giovanni Gronchi, of Italy. The Italian President, who arrived in Washington on the first state visit by an Italian Chief of State, said that his country plans to broaden its co-operation with the U.S. in the service of peace. (Clockwise from left to right, Mrs. Eisenhower, Signora Gronchi, U.S. Ambassador Charles Boardman, and Signora Martin, wife of the Italian Foreign Minister.)

COMMEMORATIVE FRAME—This is a one-franc Monaco commemorative stamp, part of an issue designed to signal the forthcoming wedding of Prince Rainier and Princess Grace. The stamp features the two portraits in the date of their wedding and below that their entwined initials. The stamps will be sold publicly only on the day of the wedding and before that to collectors who apply for them.

"BATTLESHIP" OF TRUE COOL WAR—Tugs maintain a Canadian twin pair of the Elbe three-crews at Hamburg, Germany, as all of Europe battles the worst two-century winter. Tugs push to keep a channel open in the vital North Sea port in the face of the waves of icebergs and cold waves which have choked harbors of Europe during the last few months.

HERE'S THE "BACK" OF FASHION'S SUMMER PICTURE—Jet cotton blouse with a back bow, at left, is combined with a gold-plated collar trim shirt for maximum "jet" blouse and sport blouse, at right, is combined with a gold-plated collar trim shirt for maximum "jet" blouse and sport blouse, at right, is combined with a gold-plated collar trim shirt for maximum "jet" blouse and sport blouse.

Personal touch

Employees of the city light department of Dallas, Texas, are trying this approach to the problem of dog biting motor readers. Alongside the motor readers, holders in their motor houses they are writing the names of the family pets.

Now, if a dog jumps from their car and bites him by house, if it doesn't keep him off they'll at least know which one it is.

AUGMENTING IRON RATION

Many people require extra iron in their diet. A balanced diet can include extra iron if there is emphasis on the various foods which are rich in this mineral, including green fruits, including apricots, raisins, peaches and grapes, most of which are favorites with the majority of people. Liver, kidney, tongue, beef and heart, as well as beef greens, spinach, carrot marmalade, are all good sources of iron.

Canada leads

More money is spent in Canada on dental research than in any other country. Dr. D. W. Chaffin, secretary of the Canadian Dental Association, and recently, he told the London and Canadian Dental Society that Canada's reputation is as good, each year a large number of applications from foreign students are turned down because of lack of training facilities.

HAND MADE—These long, light fitting coats are Irish hand crocheted lace with black ribbon crisscrossing through the lace. The blouse is of white Irish linen with a waist hugging belt of red satin. The design is by Edna Connolly.

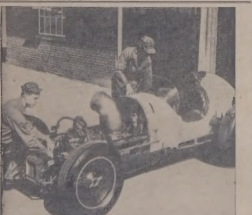

CARNIVAL QUEEN—Pat Pugh of Ottawa tips her crown to the crowd and wishes after being named Carnival Queen at Beaulieu, Quebec, a city across from the Capital. More than 300,000 turned out for the fifth annual carnival.

ALLEY DOWLING DEAN—Grand old man of the gambling game is 84-year-old Thomas Ryan, who spent a glass industry by inventing a variation of the 19th-century style 18 years ago to give him the worst the present five-pin style. It was only recently discovered he was responsible for the boom and he is now being during a dollar given in his honor at Toronto.

PROFESSIONAL PORTRAIT—Maurice Connolly, America's sweetheart of the courts until her retirement from amateur tennis, poses for a "professional" portrait in Chicago. Dr. "Little Mor" will keep the nation, giving advice at high school tennis clinics, in her role as manufacturer's representative.

HOW TO MAKE A "BOAT" NING—Airman of the Strategic Air Command, stationed at Offutt Air Force Base, near Omaha, Neb., says that after a "boat" NING, he is in luck. He is one of the young army experimenters who designed to utilize a boat powered turbine, the quarter-way is advanced the "BACCHOD".

